Graham, North Carolina

foreword

As the seasons come and go, so memories are made. Each brings with it events which commemorate our life at Graham High School.

With fall comes the excitement of the beginning of school, pep rallies, football games, and highlights of the homecoming spectacular.

Winter is enlightened by basketball games, Thanksgiving, Christmas holidays, and then our halfway mark, first semester exams.

The blossoms of spring bring along our fond traditions such as, Seniors visiting Washington, the colossus Junior-Senior Prom and thoughts in mind of the seniors' last years at "dear ole" G. H. S. with respective careers lying ahead of them. At last the air is filled with the boom of "pomp" and "circumstance" and the final march down the aisles of close association with Mr. Bryan, faculty, and fellow classmates.

Thus, another year has passed, but it shall remain embedded in our hearts for years to come with many glorious thoughts of those who were a part of "our G. H. S." throughout the seasons of our year.

MISS GENA CHURCH
TEACHER, COUNSELOR,
AND FRIEND

Through her guidance, encouragements, and great enthusiasm, we were able to obtain goals of immense significance; life planning and instructions were her foreword to our perspective future; problems of the students were never a burden to her, but an inspiration for her untiring duties, of which were many.

We, the class of 1961, in recognition of her undying energy and helping hand, wish to honor Miss Gena Church with this, our WAG.

In Honor Of

Dedicated To

MRS. ANN K. WALKER
TEACHER, HELPER,
AND FRIEND

Her expressions, willingness, and charm made friendly counsel, great interest in our work, both in and out of the classroom. Her patience and understanding of our humanistic traits and individual circumstances have been most helpful "over and beyond the call of duty" as a teacher.

She has done her part in guiding us toward our future life, proving that love, kindness, honesty, and truth are the main basis for each individual's goal in life.

We, the class of 1961, want to leave a lasting expression of our love and gratitude. To that end, we dedicate this, our WAG, to one we can never forget, Mrs. Ann K. Walker.

The 1961

Betty Pugh, Editor; Mr. James M. Buck, Advisor; and Associate Editor, Mary Pat Evans select pictures for the various layouts.

Business Manager, Vicki Massengill, and her associate, Mike Bason, record the income from the ad sales.

Circulation Manager, Dianne McPherson, and her associate, Pam Meredith, write out receipts for the individual annual sales.

Activities Manager, Janice Moss, and her associate, Mickie Stanley, prepare the lay-outs for various clubs in the school.

WAG Staff

Our typists, Gloria Cody, Martha Carter, and Scottie Hudson, work many hours toward the completion of the WAG.

Advertising Manager, Katherine Neal, and her associate, Joan Stainback, compute the results of the advertisments in our annual.

Sports Editor, Billy Graves, and his associate, Andrew Sims, look through old annuals for ideas in the sports section.

Our photographers, Jerry Henderson and James Watson, take interesting pictures to brighten the pages of our annual.

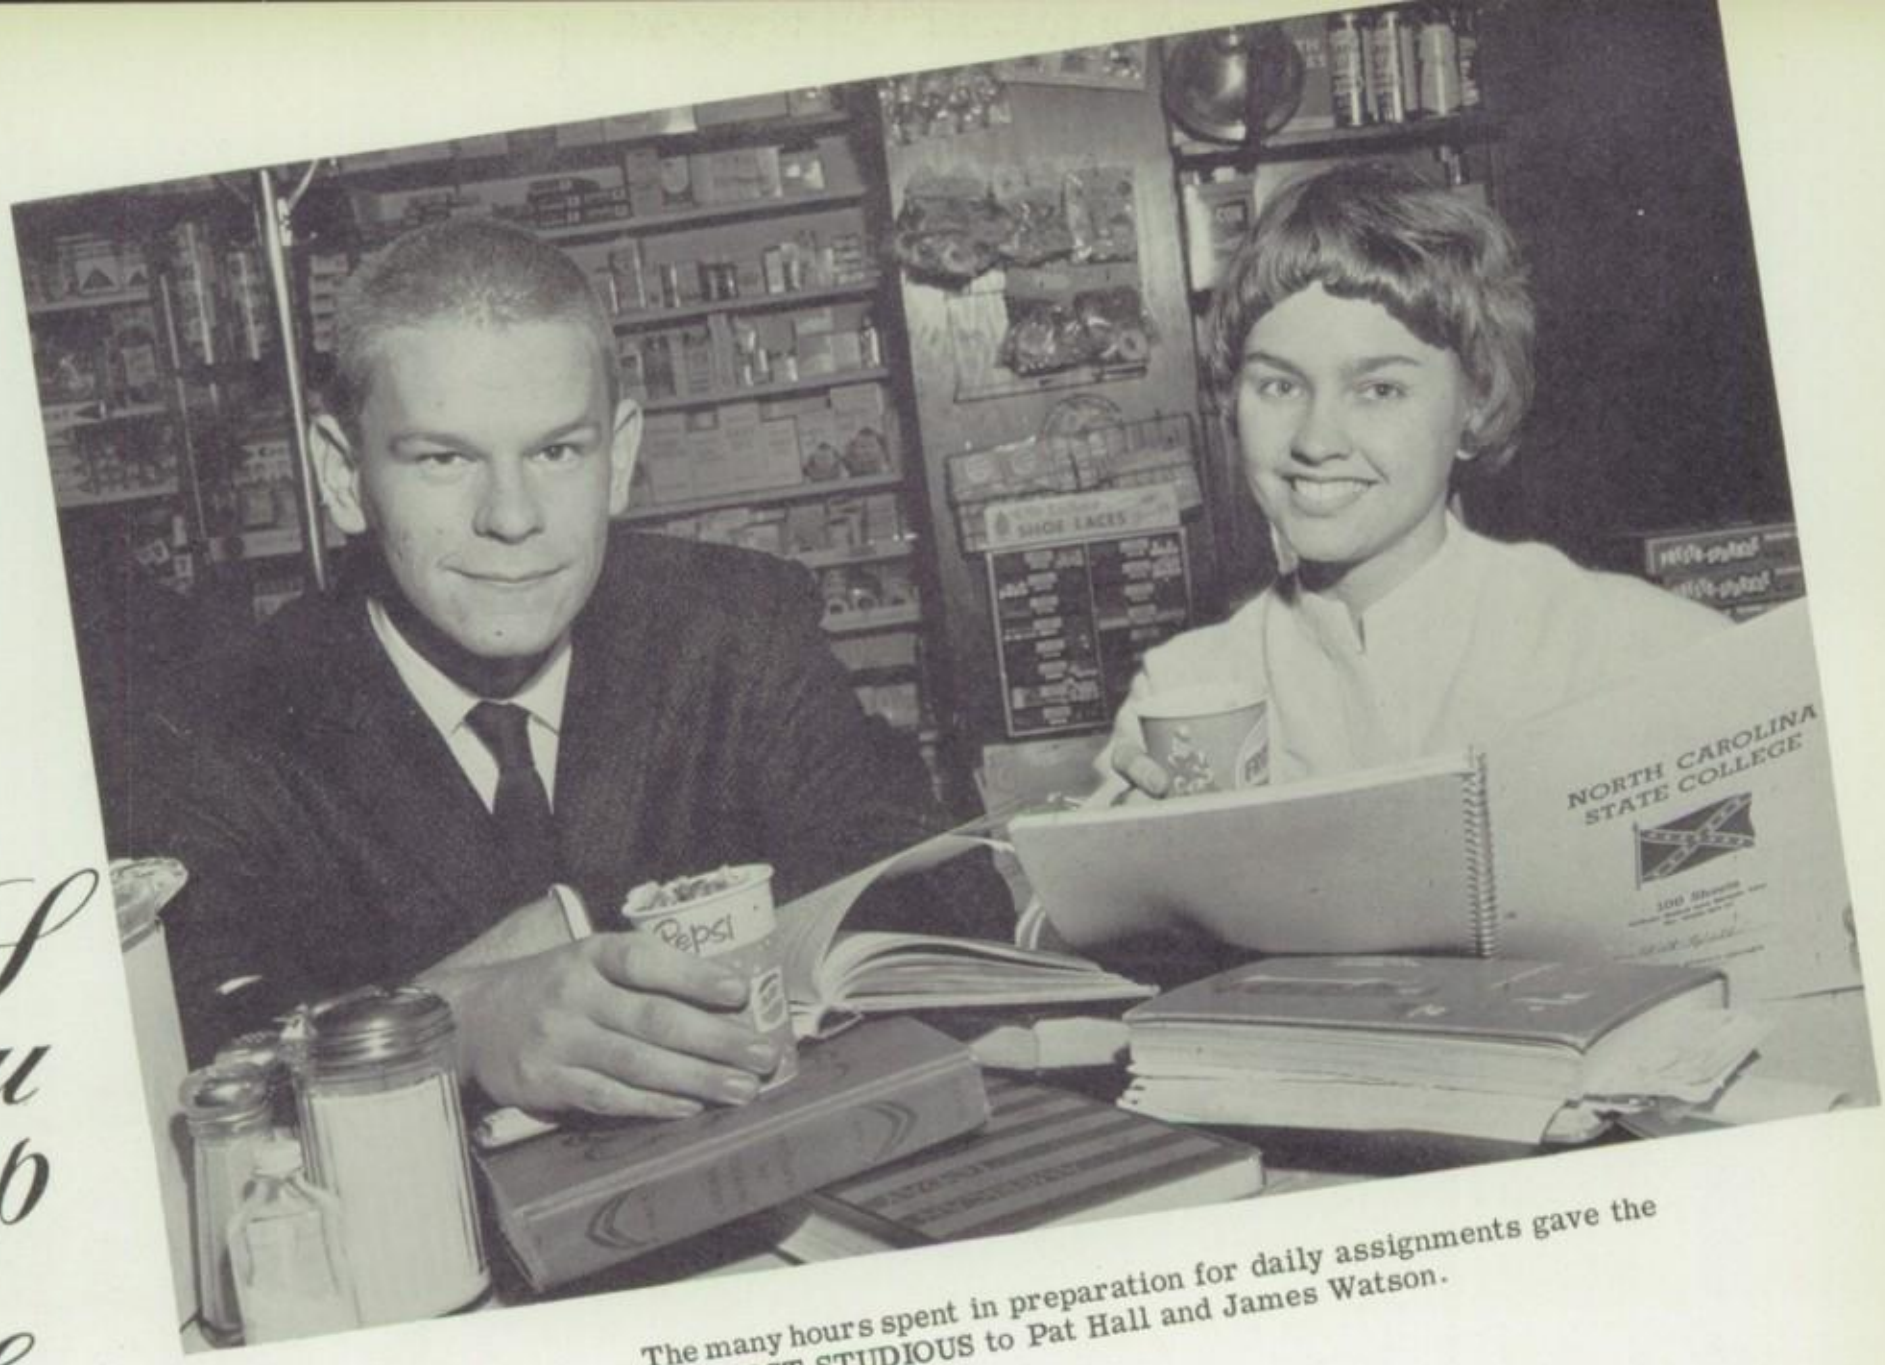
Superlatives



The many hours spent in preparation for daily assignments gave the honor of MOST STUDIOUS to Pat Hall and James Watson.

The initiative and leadership of Janice Moss and Don Guthrie won them the title of MOST LIKELY TO SUCCEED in high school work and in their chosen careers.

Martha Carter and Clayton Johnson had the responsibilities of the entire student body upon their shoulders as they faithfully performed their duties as MOST VALUABLE TO SCHOOL.

Their will to be MOST CO-OPERATIVE WHEN NEEDED is present in the actions of Dianne McPherson and Jerry Henderson.

Baseball, basketball, or football, Scottie Hudson and Jerry DeBruler copped the muscular honors as MOST ATHLETIC.

Their eagerness to cheer the "Red Devils" on to victory gave their classmates good reason to select Linda Sykes and Curtis Seamon as having the MOST SCHOOL SPIRIT.

Sally Compton and Jimmy Linens, because of the generous attitude shown toward their fellow classmates, were chosen SWEETEST.

Their appealing manners and pleasant dispositions won MOST COURTEOUS for Sylvia Ham and David Stewart.

"A smile that refreshes" was the motto and practice which helped Betty Jean Clark and Johnnie Mitchell cop the title of FRIENDLIEST.

Nancy Harden and Walter Graham, with their ability to enjoy any situation and to make any cynic smile, were chosen WITTIEST by the Senior Class.

Their far-reaching personalities and winning ways make Anna Bennett and Sammy Barnes known to G. H. S. as MOST POPULAR.

BEST ALL ROUND was earned by Jeanne Swanner and Bunn Lee because of their friendliness, varied activities, sincerity, and interest in student affairs.

A matter of tact and taste prompted the Senior Class to elect Mary Moser and Ray Fogleman as having the BEST PERSONALITY.

You can always count on Gloria Cody and Carroll Ellington to be tastefully dressed on any occasion. This trait won them recognition as BEST DRESSED.

With a smile and a blush, Betty Pugh and Billy Graves contributed much to the atmosphere in the halls of G. H. S. as CUTEST.

The belle and beau of any ball, Judi Stanfield and Joe Okey captured the gaze of every senior as well as the title of BEST LOOKING.

The Junior Class of Graham High School requests the pleasure of your company at a Buffet and Prom in honor of the class of nineteen hundred and sixty on Friday, the twenty-ninth of April at eight o'clock in the evening at the High School
R.S.V.P.
Formal

"Once upon a time. . ." the "Cinderella Ball" was held at Graham High School, featuring the 'satin slipper,' 'multi-colored pumpkin coach,' 'flower-filled garden,' the 'clock' which chimed at the magic hour, and the 'story book' which related the theme of the 1960 Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom,". . .and they all lived happily ever after.

George Wightman and Deanna Shoffner reigned as King and Queen of the "Cinderella" Prom.

Excitement did not reduce the appetites of the juniors and seniors as they eagerly selected their dinner from the varied, elaborate menu.

"So, then, to every man his chance—
To every man, regardless of his birth,
His shining, golden opportunity—
To every man the right to live,
To work, to be himself
And to become
Whatever things his manhood and his vision
Can combine to make him—
This seeker,
Is the promise of America."
